593 Bainbridge Street â€” Versatile
Two-Family with Classic Brooklyn Character in Ocean Hill

Set on a picturesque tree-lined block in Ocean Hill, 593 Bainbridge Street blends flexibility, prewar detail, and a sense of lasting quality. This 18-foot-wide townhouse spans approximately 2,430 sq ft across three livable floors plus a full basement on an 18 Ã— 100 ft lot, offering a layout that suits both end-users and investors seeking adaptable space.

Inside, period details remain throughoutâ€”a graceful staircase with turned spindles, decorative mantles, tin ceilings, and inlaid hardwood floors. The first-floor bathroom is the most recent renovation, while the kitchens on the upper levels have been updated in recent years. The property also features a newer roof, hot-water heater, boiler, and electrical systems, reflecting consistent maintenance and thoughtful care.

The full basement mirrors the footprint of the home and provides abundant storage, laundry, or recreation space, while a deep private backyard offers a peaceful setting for gardening, entertaining, or dining. Classic craftsmanship meets thoughtful care, creating a home that feels as solid as it is timeless.

Located near the C train at Ralph Avenue and the J/Z at Chauncey Street, the home is convenient to Saratoga Park, Weeksville Heritage Center, and a growing mix of local caf  s and amenities that make Ocean Hill one of Brooklyn  s most exciting neighborhoods.
