A fantastic opportunity to acquire a well-established, high-performing Edible Arrangements franchise located in Park Slope, NY. The business operates on a successful, proven model, boasts a strong online presence, and is positioned for continued success. The motivated seller is relocating after three successful years of operation. Proven local market demand and customer base. 99% of sales are online. Highly optimized e-commerce operation; minimal reliance on foot traffic. High sales volume during peak gifting seasons (Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, holidays). Predictable annual revenue spikes and high profitability potential. All equipment is owned and in good condition, including a delivery van. Well-established logistics, approved vendors, and franchisor support. Immediate operational readiness; benefit from national brand image and marketing. 2 years remaining with a 5-year option to extend in the lease. Provides long-term security and stability for a new owner. Franchise Fees Includes marketing and advertising expenses. This is an ideal opportunity for an entrepreneur seeking a proven, brand-backed business with an established digital infrastructure. The new owner must meet all franchise transfer requirements, pay the applicable fee, and successfully complete the franchisor's interview process.
